

MAY 1 1962

ON COMMUNISM

Ex-Local Man's Article in 'Digest'

A former local man is the author of an article on "The Insidious Campaign to Silence Anti-Communists" in the May issue of Reader's Digest.

He is Col. William R. Kintner, U. S. Army retired, son of the late Attorney and Mrs. Joseph J. Kintner and a 1932 graduate of the former Westmont-Upper Yoder High School. Col. Kintner is deputy director of the Foreign Policy Research Institute and professor of political science at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.

His magazine article is prefaced by this statement:

"A long-time student of Moscow's techniques explains how the Kremlin is using the furor over 'extremists' to attempt to liquidate intelligent opposition in the United States to communism's cold-war maneuvers."

The retired officer, a 1939 graduate of the United States Military Academy, West Point, served successively from 1950-61 as a Central Intelligence Agency planning officer, a staff negotiator at the Panmunjom (Korea) armistice talks, an adviser at the White House on cold-war operations and as chief of long-range planning in the Office of the Chief of Staff, U. S. Army.

William R. Kintner

Col. Kintner is co-author of several books, including "Protracted Conflict" and "A Forward Strategy for America." His latest book, "The New Frontier of War," described as an analysis of Communist psychopolitical warfare, will be published this month.